Theater of the Mind Barrie Richardson 1999

Mindwise Nicholas Epley 2014-02-11 You are a mind reader, born with an extraordinary ability to understand what others think, feel, believe, want, and know. It's a sixth sense you use every day, in every personal and professional relationship you have. At its best, this ability allows you to achieve the most important goal in almost any life: connecting, deeply and intimately and honestly, to other human beings. At its worst, it is a source of misunderstanding and unnecessary conflict, leading to damaged relationships and broken dreams. How good are you at knowing the minds of others? How well can you guess what others think of you, know who really likes you, or tell when someone is lying? How well do you really understand the minds of those closest to you, from your spouse to your kids to your best friends? Do you really know what your coworkers, employees, competitors, or clients want? In this illuminating exploration of one of the great mysteries of the human mind, University of Chicago psychologist Nicholas Epley introduces us to what scientists have learned about our ability to understand the most complicated puzzle on the planet—other people—and the surprising mistakes we so routinely make. Why are we sometimes blind to the minds of others, treating them like objects or animals? Why do we sometimes talk to our cars, or the stars, as if there is a mind that can hear us? Why do we so routinely believe that others think, feel, and want what we do when, in fact, they do not? And why do we believe we understand our spouses, family, and friends so much better than we actually do? Mindwise will not turn other people into open books, but it will give you the wisdom to revolutionize how you think about them—and yourself.

Magic Joshua Jay 2008-11-08 Magic is everywhere, from the big spectacle celebrity of David Copperfield and Siegfried and Roy to the quirky Penn and Teller to the spooky David Blaine and Criss Angel to the endless material on YouTube. But until now, learning it has never been easy—that's all about to change with Magic, a book that does for close-up magic what How to Grill does for barbecue. Written by charismatic young magician Joshua Jay, Magic combines expertise, photographs, and step-by-step directions showing how to perform 100 tricks. Joshua Jay took home the top prize at the World Magic Seminar (the Olympics of magic) when he was just 16 years old. Now he continues to perform magic, write about magic, eat, sleep, and breathe magic. Here, he brings all his passion and knowledge to teaching magic. Each trick is broken down into the Effect, the Secret, the Set-up, and, most important, the Performance, with lessons on what to say, how to direct the audience's attention, where to keep your hands, and so on. (In other words, how to be smart about the things your audience is surprisingly clueless about.) Here are the Ten Greatest Card Tricks; tricks to dazzle a dinner date; tricks to perform for the boss (poke a hole through his shirt, then magically mend it); tricks especially for kids; and even tricks for an audience in another state—with "Australian Self-Help," you can find a participant's chosen card over the phone. It's the Aha! book for a subject whose time has come.

31 Days to Mentalism Giochidimagia 2020-03-09 It has been a few years since the publication of Modern Mentalism with its 3 Volumes and little time since the publication of Mentalism from A to Z. In these volumes, techniques, psychology, tricks, ethics and much more have been explained about the world of mentalism. This world is always immense as a heritage of creativity for which I wanted to publish this new guide with a different approach: not to mention particular techniques but making available to the reader only tricks of mentalism to be carried out immediately. The aim is to create a real practical repertoire, to be performed immediately! The proposed effects are simple, effective and easy to learn and execute. This manual does not talk about psychological mentalism, or scientific, PNL, hypnosis, etc. but you will find methods that you will learn by performing the magic effects and some of which are quite unusual and therefore deserve to be known along with the more classic principles of the Mentalism. The presentations are not specifically addressed, as their importance is vital for the tricks but, in my opinion, it is too personal to be "taught" so a few indications were provided only on how to present each effect, for example on the specific topic, (mind-reading, reading non-verbal language, etc.); leaving the interpreter free to adapt or create his own presentation based on his individual uniqueness as an artist and person. The time has come to end the interminable rhetoric and to take action, or rather to tricks! In this ebook you find: Introduction Day 1: Guess what time is it! Day 2: Do you mind reading o do you magic tricks? Day 3: Subliminal response Day 4: Random words Day 5: We bet that I guess your card! Day 6: I know which color you're going to choose Day 7: I know which color sequence you will choose Day 8: I can read your mind Day 9: I know what Grandma's name is it Day 10: Bet with the spectators! Day 11: Thought at a distance Day 12: Colours association Day 13: Concentrate, I will tell you the serial number of the banknote you have in your pocket! Day 14: I know which postcard you will choose! Day 15: An impossible mind-reading! Day 16: Your 10 € have this serial number Day 17: Now stop joking! Day 18: See with the mind Day 19: No, that's not just possible! Day 20: What drink do you want? Day 21: The Book of Secrets Day 22: Burned thoughts Day 23: Non-verbal language Day 24: Capture emotions Giorno 25: Smell like victory Day 26: The mystery of the banknotes Day 27: Mental emotions Day 28: Guards and thieves Day 29: Telepathy with names Day 30: Predicting a thought card Day 31: Impossible numerical prevision!
