Book Collecting Allen Ahearn 1995 Discusses the criteria for book collecting, from edition and condition to selection for specialized collections

George Meredith's 1895 Collection of Three Stories George Meredith 1997 This is a new edition of a collection of three stories by George Meredith - The Tale of Chloe, The House on the Beach, and The Case of General Ople and Lady Camper. An opening essay discusses the stories in their literary and historical context, with particular attention to themes and literary techniques that Meredith used frequently in his fiction. Following the stories themselves, the volume includes the full text of several 1895 reviews that reflect the range of social and literary views typical of the age. The reviews come from such publications as - The Athenaeum, The Bookman, The Yellow Book, The Pall Mall Gazette, and The Times.

Victorian Britain (Routledge Revivals) Sally Mitchell 2012-08-06 First published in 1888, this encyclopedia serves as an overview and point of entry to the complex interdisciplinary field of Victorian studies. The signed articles, which cover persons, events, institutions, topics, groups and artefacts in Great Britain between 1837 and 1901, have been written by authorities in the field and contain bibliographies to provide guidelines for further research. The work is intended for undergraduates and the general reader, and also as a starting point for graduates who wish to explore new fields.
